New Exhibit at the Georgia Archives
A Little Help from Our Friends: Georgia Archives Projects Made Possible by Partners and Grants

The Georgia Archives is proud to announce the opening of its latest exhibit, A Little Help from Our Friends: Georgia Archives Projects Made Possible by Partners and Grants, which highlights the significant projects and preservation efforts made possible through the generous support of partner organizations and grant programs. This exhibit is an opportunity to showcase the work our dedicated staff has been able to accomplish and to celebrate the invaluable contributions of the organizations and grants that have enabled the Georgia Archives to expand its preservation and digitization efforts.

The exhibit will be open from September 7th, 2024, until November 30th, 2024. It is free and open to the public during our regular research hours: Tuesday through Saturday, 9 am – 12 pm and 1 pm – 4 pm.

##

The Georgia Archives is a unit of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. The Georgia Archives identifies, collects, manages, preserves, provides access to, and publicizes records and information of Georgia and its people, and assists state and local government agencies with their records management.
